

Day 5 – LO: Write a recount: 'Narrow Escapes'.

Write your story from the point of view of the prey. Don't forget to use the picture and the notes that you made yesterday, to help you.

1. Imagine that you are the prey in the story.
 - Where were you at the start? What were you doing?
 - What did you see and feel when the predator attacked?
 - How did you escape?
 - How did you feel afterwards?

2. Remind yourself about Personal Recounts

- Read Personal Recount Features.
- When you tell your story from the point of view of the prey, you are giving a personal recount.

Can you spot the features of a recount as you tell your story?

3. Now write your story. You can use your storyboard to remind you what to write about but do remember to write from the point of view of the prey.

- Include adverbials in your writing. Read the pages about adverbials to help you to do this.

You can always email us your story as we would to read them!
