Summer 2025

Introduction

We want our schools to be happy and healthy places to learn (St James': ...to achieve and believe) for everyone.

We are committed to advancing equality and promoting respect for difference and diversity in everything that we do. We are committed to ensuring equality of education and opportunity for all pupils, staff, parents and carers. We aim to develop a culture of inclusion and diversity in which all those connected to the school feel proud of their identity and able to participate fully in school life. Doing so will help to ensure the vision for our schools to be happy and healthy places.

The legal framework

We welcome our duties under The Equality Act 2010 and The Equality Act 2010 \(Specific Duties\) Regulations 2017. This document is also based on Department for Education (DfE) guidance: The Equality Act 2010 and schools.

The requirements under the Equality Act 2010 include to:

- have due regard to the need to eliminate unlawful discrimination, harassment and victimisation
- advance equality of opportunity between people who share a protected characteristic and people who do not share it
- foster good relations across all characteristics – between people who share a protected characteristic and people who do not share it – through tackling prejudice and promoting understanding

We are required to make 'reasonable adjustments' for pupils with disabilities under the Equality Act 2010, to alleviate any substantial disadvantage that a pupil with disabilities faces in comparison with a pupil without disabilities. This can include, for example, the provision of an auxiliary aid or adjustments to premises.

As a guide, when deciding whether an adjustment is reasonable, we consider:

- how effective the change will be in avoiding the substantial disadvantage
- the practicality of the change
- the cost
- our resources and size
- the availability of financial support

The act covers the following protected characteristics:

- age (as appropriate for schools)
- disability
- gender reassignment
- marriage and civil partnership (as appropriate for schools)
- pregnancy and maternity
- race
- religion and belief
- sex
- sexual orientation

Definitions of each characteristic are included as an appendix. Every person has several of the protected characteristics, so the act protects everyone against unfair treatment.

The Public Sector Equality Duty is a duty on public authorities to consider or think about how their policies or decisions affect people who are protected under the Equality Act, having due regard to:

- eliminating unlawful discrimination, harassment and victimisation
- advancing equality of opportunity between people who share a protected characteristic and people who do not share it
- fostering good relations across all protected characteristics between people who share a protected characteristic and people who do not share it

Guiding principles

In fulfilling our statutory duties, we are guided by eight principles.

Principle 1: All members of the school and wider community are of equal value

We see all members of the school and wider community of equal value.

Principle 2: We recognise and celebrate diversity

Treating people equally does not necessarily involve treating them all the same. Our policies, procedures and activities must not discriminate, but are differentiated, as appropriate, to take account of differences of life experience, outlook and background, and in the kinds of barrier and disadvantage which people may face.

Principle 3: We foster positive attitudes and relationships, and a shared sense of cohesion and belonging

We intend that our policies, procedures and activities should promote positive attitudes; mutual respect; positive interaction; good relations and dialogue; and an absence of prejudice-related bullying and incidents.

Principle 4: We ensure that the recruitment, retention and ongoing development of staff, volunteers and governors is undertaken in a fair and equitable manner to support our schools' vision and values

Policies and procedures should benefit all employees and potential employees, for example in recruitment and promotion, and in continuing professional development.

Principle 5: We aim to reduce and remove inequalities and barriers that already exist

In addition to avoiding or minimising possible negative impacts, we take opportunities to maximise positive impacts by reducing and removing inequalities and barriers that may already exist between people.

Principle 6: We consult with stakeholders

People affected by a policy or activity are consulted and involved in the design of new policies, and in the review of existing ones, where appropriate.

Principle 7: We feel that the community as a whole should benefit

We intend that our policies and activities should benefit society as a whole, both locally and nationally, by fostering greater social cohesion, and greater participation in public life.

Principle 8: We work to ensure that everyone has access to a healthy lifestyle

Our aim is to be a happy and healthy place to learn and place to work. As such, we aim to ensure our provision (curriculum, wider provision, food in school etc) supports healthy living for all.

Principle 9: Our decision-making is objective, free from bias

Our approaches and practices are evidence-informed.

Principle 10: Our curriculum promotes equality, diversity and inclusion

We review and develop our curriculum taking into consideration how it might further develop and promote equality, diversity and community cohesion. (See Appendix: Living and Learning age-related expectations.)

Practical application

Eliminating discrimination, advancing equality of opportunity, and fostering good relations are all integral to ensuring Sphere Federation schools are happy and healthy places to learn (St James': ...to achieve and believe). Having due regard to the Public Sector Equality Duty and the principles above are therefore fundamental to what we do in school, in particular our curriculum for Living and Learning (our name for Personal, Social, Health and Economic Education; refer to the Living and Learning Curriculum Guide) which includes

- learning about protected characteristics
- learning about fundamental British values (democracy, rules and laws, individual liberty, respect and tolerance), and
- promoting pupils' spiritual, moral, social and cultural (SMSC) development.

Eliminating discrimination

The federation is aware of its obligations under the Equality Act 2010 and comply with non-discrimination provisions. Where relevant, our policies include reference to the importance of avoiding discrimination and other prohibited conduct. Staff and governors are regularly reminded of their responsibilities under the Equality Act (eg during meetings and in dedicated CPD).

Sphere Federation schools are opposed to all forms of prejudice which stand in the way of fulfilling legal duties for all aspects of equality. There is guidance in the Positive Relationships Policy on how prejudice-related incidents are identified, assessed, recorded and dealt with. We report to the Governing Body about the numbers, types and seriousness of prejudice-related incidents at each of the Sphere Federation schools and how they were dealt with.

Teachers and school leaders challenge discrimination and stereotypes across the curriculum (eg the list of featured scientists, artists, designers which feature in the Science, Art and Design and Technology (refer to the Science Curriculum Guide and the Topic Curriculum Guide), and whenever it is required or appropriate (eg if a pupil were to make a homophobic remark, it would be challenged in an age-appropriate way, such as by saying 'You've used the word gay, but not in the right way', with consequences – see the Positive Relationship Policy).

Advancing equality of opportunity

As set out in the DfE guidance on the Equality Act, the federation aims to advance equality of opportunity by removing or minimising disadvantages suffered by people that are connected to a particular characteristic they have (eg pupils with disabilities, pupils who are being subjected to homophobic bullying); taking steps to meet the particular needs of people who have a particular characteristic (eg considering Muslim pupils who fast during the period of Ramadan); and encouraging people who have a particular characteristic to participate fully in any activities (eg encouraging all pupils to be involved in the full range of Sports Day activities).

In fulfilling this aspect of the duty, we review outcomes (eg attainment data) to assess how pupils with different characteristics are performing in order to determine strengths and areas for improvement, and subsequently implement actions in response. We actively seek opportunities to review the curriculum in order to ensure that teaching and learning reflect the eight principles outlined above. We monitor the impact of our teaching in terms of sex, age, race, disability and other protected characteristic when appropriate and useful to do. In addition, we monitor in terms of socio-economic background, special educational need, and whether English is an additional language. We review the impact of teaching across years and across Sphere Federation schools and nationally to support the principles of equality set out here.

Fostering good relations

The federation aims to foster good relations between those who share a protected characteristic and those who do not share it by promoting tolerance, friendship and understanding. Our curriculum, in particular the curriculum for Living and Learning, plays an important part in promoting equality, particularly by fostering good relations across all characteristics, tackling prejudice, and promoting understanding (eg Living and Learning includes learning every year about the protected characteristics, and being the same and being different). Other subjects play a significant role, too eg teaching in RE, where pupils learn about and celebrate the diversity of faiths and beliefs in their community, and as part of teaching and learning in Reading, where pupils are introduced to literature from a range of cultures. School assemblies (St James': collective worship) and themed weeks (eg Me and My Communities) also play a role in fostering good relations.

Equality considerations in policies, practices and decision-making

We ensure we have due regard to equality considerations whenever significant decisions are made. We consider the impact of significant decisions on particular groups. For example, when a school trip or activity is being planned, the school considers whether the trip cuts across any religious holidays, is accessible to pupils with disabilities, and has equivalent facilities for boys and girls.

We ensure that the principles listed above apply to the full range of our policies and practices, including those that are concerned with:

- pupils' progress, attainment and assessment
- pupils' and staff personal development, welfare and well-being
- teaching styles and strategies
- admissions and attendance
- staff and governor recruitment, retention and professional development
- care, guidance and support
- behaviour, discipline and exclusions
- working in partnership with parents, carers and guardians
- working with the wider community
- participation of groups in wider school activities
- preparing all members of the learning community for living and positively contributing to a diverse society

This policy links to our School Improvement Plans, our Curriculum Guides, our Positive Relationships Policy and others. Equality is fundamental to what we do, therefore this list is not intended to be exhaustive as the principles set out here are far-reaching.

We respect the religious beliefs and practice of all staff, pupils and parents, and comply with reasonable requests relating to religious observance and practice.

Roles and responsibilities

The governing body:

- ensures that the equality information and objectives as set out in this statement are published and communicated throughout the school, including to staff, pupils and parents
- ensures that the published equality information is updated at least every year, and that the objectives are reviewed and updated at least every 4 years
- delegates responsibility for monitoring the achievement of the objectives on a daily basis to the headteacher

The head of federation:

- promotes knowledge and understanding of the equality objectives among staff and pupils
- monitors success in achieving the objectives and reports back to governors
- ensures staff and governors are offered the opportunity to engage in appropriate training and development

The heads of each Sphere Federation school

- support the head of federation in fulfilling the above responsibilities
- have day-to-day responsibility for co-ordinating implementation of the policy statement

All school staff are expected to have regard to this document and to work towards fulfilling the aims and principles set out; for example (the following is not intended to be exhaustive), they:

- promote an inclusive and collaborative ethos in their classroom
- challenge and deal with any prejudice-related incidents that may occur
- identify and challenge bias and stereotyping in the curriculum
- support pupils in their class for whom English is an additional language
- keep up-to-date with equalities legislation relevant to their work
- ensure that pupils have the opportunity to have their voices heard with regards to equality issues

Breaches of the policy statement

Breaches will be dealt with through the relevant policies and procedures eg the grievance or disciplinary policy.

Monitoring and review

We update the equality information we publish annually.

This document is reviewed by Sphere Federation leaders including governors in accordance with the Governing Board's schedule of policy review (or at least every four years). When reviewing this policy, we take account of quantitative data (such as data related to progress and attainment) and qualitative data (such as other monitoring and evaluating exercises).

We're always keen to hear the views of parents, pupils, staff and members of the local community, not least any views relating to the issues set out here. Please do let us know. Similarly, we consult and involve those affected by inequality in the decisions we take to promote equality.

ST JAMES'
Church of England
Primary School

St James' CE Primary only: Christian values

Although we follow the same agreed principles and practices that are set out in this policy, St James' CE Primary has a distinctive Christian ethos. To support this, we have adopted six core Christian values (see below). As you would expect, these values are fundamental to the dignity and respect for all. They play a major part in how we treat others around us, regardless of our differences. Examples are in brackets.

- compassion (promoting compassion for others regardless of differences – 'love... binds everything together in perfect harmony')
- courage (promoting courage to stand up to prejudice and ensure fairness in life)
- forgiveness
- honesty (we want our children to feel honest about who they are and confident they will be treated fairly and with regard for equality)
- peace
- perseverance (sometimes, we have to persevere to help others see beyond bias and prejudice, to promote happy relationships for all)

Appendix: Living and Learning age-related expectations

Living and Learning age-related expectations that directly relate to equality are shown below. Those in blue relate directly. Refer to Living and Learning Curriculum Guide for up-to-date expectations and other content related to the Sphere Federation curriculum for personal development.

Age

A person belonging to a particular age (eg 32 year olds) or range of ages (eg 18 to 30 year olds).

Disability

A person has a disability if she or he has a physical or mental impairment which has a substantial and long-term adverse effect on that person's ability to carry out normal day-to-day activities.

Gender reassignment

Where a person undergoes, or proposes to undergo, a process for the purpose of reassigning their sex.

Marriage and civil partnership

Marriage is a union between a man and a woman or between a same-sex couple.

Same-sex couples can also have their relationships legally recognised as 'civil partnerships'. Civil partners must not be treated less favourably than married couples (except where permitted by the Equality Act).

Pregnancy and maternity

Pregnancy is the condition of being pregnant or expecting a baby. Maternity refers to the period after the birth, and is linked to maternity leave in the employment context. In the non-work context, protection against maternity discrimination is for 26 weeks after giving birth, and this includes treating a woman unfavourably because she is breastfeeding.

Race

A race is a group of people defined by their colour, nationality (including citizenship), ethnicity or national origins. A racial group can be made up of more than one distinct racial group, such as Black British.

Religion and belief

Religion refers to any religion, including a lack of religion. Belief refers to any religious or philosophical belief and includes a lack of belief. Generally, a belief should affect your life choices or the way you live for it to be included in the definition.

Sex

A man or a woman.

Sexual orientation

Whether a person's sexual attraction is towards their own sex, the opposite sex or to both sexes.

Appendix: Equality data (October 2024)

As part of the Public Sector Equality Duty, schools are required to share information relating to any 'persons who share a relevant protected characteristic who are affected by its policies and practices.' This means broadly reporting the demographic information at your school for the protected characteristics. However, some of the characteristics apply to very small numbers (if any at all) and others don't apply to primary schools. In line with The UK General Data Protection Regulation \(GDPR\) and DfE Equality Act 2010: advice for schools:

- we do not currently supply information on age, disability, gender reassignment, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, and sexual orientation
- we have aggregated numbers in any category where there are fewer than five children

Appendix: Equality objectives 2025-28

This version stems from an early review and revision of previous the Equality objectives and Accessibility plan; some targets are completely new, some have a revised focus, and some have been carried over to this new period.

Sphere Federation schools are committed to securing the principles of equality at all times. We have on-going equality objectives which include

- narrow gaps in attainment by monitoring and analysing pupil achievement by race, sex, socio-economic background and other characteristic
- act on any trends or patterns in the data that require additional support/challenge for pupils
- increase levels of parental and pupil engagement in learning and school life, across all activities, to ensure equity and fairness in access and engagement

As part of the Public Sector Equality Duty, schools are required to set equality objectives every four years. The objectives listed below are in addition to on-going objectives. We've placed the objectives under three headings which correspond to the Public Sector Equality Duty. See also the Accessibility Plan (below). The objectives, and progress towards them, are reviewed annually.

Eliminating discrimination:

Awareness and understanding of protected characteristics

Why is this an objective?	What actions are needed?	Which school?	Who is responsible?	When will it be completed by?	How will we measure effectiveness?
There is very little discriminatory behaviour amongst pupils currently and we want to ensure this continues to be addressed so that no serious incidents take place at all. we also want to instil in our pupils an appreciation for and respect of protected characteristics.	Implement a new long-term plan for Living and Learning which features protected characteristics even more explicitly. June 2025 actions: 1. In the revised structure of our Living and Learning curriculum, ensure that protected characteristics and British values have an even greater prominence, possibly by revisiting the learning more often than annually. 2. Add some extra detail and guidance about the learning, so 'protected' and 'individual liberty' are not neglected. 3. Develop awareness and knowledge for more pupils and at greater	St James' CE Primary Moortown Primary Scholes (Elmet) Primary	Head of Federation Living and Learning leader Teachers	2022-23, with explicit reference to protected characteristics in Autumn 1	Learning conversations with children, with agreed success criteria as to children's awareness and attitudes depth through greater direction for teachers to consider how the concepts connect and to develop appreciation of their value by considering their absence in the world. 4. Governors' challenge: incorporate more quantitative measures alongside qualitative.

June 2025 review notes: Partially achieved. Carry forward to continue 2025-28.

Eliminating discrimination: Review wraparound care provision

Why is this an objective?	What actions are needed?	Which school?	Who is responsible?	When will it be completed by?	How will we measure effectiveness?
Wraparound care across all three Sphere Federation schools is now in-house, and we have a newly appointed coordinator to monitor provision. This person is part of the SEND team, so this is an opportunity to check that wraparound in no way discriminates.	As part of regular monitoring that is being put in place (Summer 2024), incorporate checks around equality and accessibility. June 2025 action: Checks in 2025-26 will incorporate specific checks, including quantifiable measures. Advancing equality of opportunity: Review of SEND processes to raise SEND profile

Why is this an objective?	What actions are needed?	Which school?	Who is responsible?	When will it be completed by?	How will we measure effectiveness?
June 2025: Ofsted inspections at Moortown Primary and Scholes (Elmet) Primary identified at least good provision. However, at St James' CE Primary, provision for some pupils was identified as an area to develop. We are using this as a prompt to review processes so that inclusion remains a high priority.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Visit other schools to explore processes 2. Review of paperwork and processes to greater consistency and compliance 3. Delegation of more responsibilities for SEND to curriculum leaders, further raising awareness of expectations around SEND so that they are better-equipped to monitor for compliance and evaluate provision 4. Delegation of more responsibilities for SEND to teachers, ensuring compliance and more consistently high quality provision. 5. Curriculum leaders to provide support and training to ensure teachers are able to prioritise and more consistently meet the needs of pupils with SEND. 6. Roll out new programme of support for support staff, replacing some of the online training currently used. 	St James' CE Primary Moortown Primary Scholes (Elmet) Primary	Head of Federation	Changes in place across 2025-26, and then monitoring in 2026-27 and 2027-28.	Overall: improved provision and outcomes for specific pupils with SEND <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Advancing equality of opportunity: Review curriculum enhancements

Why is this an objective?	What actions are needed?	Which school?	Who is responsible?	When will it be completed by?	How will we measure effectiveness?
The long-term schedule for class trips was over-hauled in 2023-24. It needs to be reviewed to ensure that there is equality of opportunity.	Ahead of trips, consideration is always made to accessibility and learning needs. June 2025 action: Put in place changes to respond to teachers' feedback. Why is this an objective?	What actions are needed?	Which school?	Who is responsible?	When will it be completed by?	How will we measure effectiveness?
June 2025: Forest School provision at St James' CE Primary is firmly embedded as a curriculum enhancement (linked to PE and Living and Learning. It supports Equality of Opportunity: additional time is provided for selected pupils to develop social, emotional and learning skills.	We want to explore whether there is possibility to introduce across Sphere Federation: 1. Investigate costs – long-term affordability? 2. Fostering good relations:

More children can talk with understanding, confidence and positivity about different religions

Why is this an objective?	What actions are needed?	Which school?	Who is responsible?	When will it be completed by?	How will we measure effectiveness?
External monitoring and anecdotal evidence suggests there is confusion amongst pupils about religions and we believe greater subject knowledge will act as an important foundation stone on which to build positive attitudes.	June 2025 actions: 1. To support children's experiences of religion as 'living', we have invested in membership of NATRE (National Association of Teachers of Religious Education), which gives access to teaching materials and resources. 2. Review the RE curriculum again, to reflect teaching and learning materials available through NATRE. 3. Appendix: Accessibility plan 2025-28

This version stems from an early review and revision of previous the Equality objectives and Accessibility plan; some targets are completely new, some have a revised focus, and some have been carried over to this new period.

Under the Equality Act 2010, all schools are required to have an accessibility plan. We include our Accessibility Plan here as it clearly links to the Equality Policy and the Equality Objectives: by making aspects of our schools more accessible, we're also having due regard to the Public Sector Equality Duty by advancing equality of opportunity.

The purpose of this plan is to show how Sphere Federation schools will continue to ensure as far as reasonably possible accessibility for pupils with particular needs.

Our schools are committed to providing an environment that values and includes all pupils, staff, parents and visitors regardless of their education, physical, sensory, social, spiritual, emotional and cultural needs.

This Accessibility Plan sets out the proposals of the Governing Body to increase access to education for pupils in the three areas required by the planning duties in the Equality Act 2010:

- improving access to the curriculum for pupils with a disability
- improving the physical environment of schools to enable disabled pupils to take better advantage of education, benefits, facilities and services provided
- improving the availability of accessible information to pupils with a disability

Definitions and legalities

According to the Equality Act 2010, a person has a disability if he/she has a physical or mental impairment; and the impairment has a substantial and long-term adverse effect on his/her ability to carry out normal day-to-day activities.

Documents and policies

The Accessibility Plan should be read in conjunction with various other school policies, strategies and documents, including the Sphere Federation Equality Policy (above), Special Educational Needs Policy; Positive Relationships Policy; School Improvement Plans; aims and ethos. The complaints procedure covers the Accessibility Plan.

Training

Whole school training recognises the need to continue raising awareness for staff and governors on equality issues with reference to the Equality Act 2010.

Review and evaluation:

The Accessibility Plan is resourced, implemented, reviewed and revised as necessary. Below is our action plan showing how we will address the priorities identified in the plan. The plan is valid for three years and is reviewed annually.

Improve access to the curriculum for pupils with a disability

Objectives	Which school?	What actions are needed?	Who is responsible?	When will it be completed by?	How will we measure effectiveness?
June 2025: Based on feedback from and observations in an existing school, introduce standing desks for use by all pupils (useful for some collaborative learning) but in particular for pupils with some SEND needs (eg ADHD)	St James' CE Primary Moortown Primary Scholes (Elmet) Primary	School finances are at their most stretched state so careful trial is needed: 1. Decide on desks to purchase, based on consultation with Y5,6 teachers 2. Purchase for Y5,6 classrooms where teachers have expressed interest in trialling 3. Senior leaders carry out two reviews of their use and impact in 2025-26 4. Decision as to whether schools invest in more across KS2 / whole of primary	All senior leadership Y5,6 teachers	Initial trial 2025-26 Possible wider implementation 2026-27	Feedback from teachers Feedback from pupils Observations of use
